The Black Swan at Oldstead has won Best use of Regional Produce on a Menu- Restaurant/Pub/Inn at the fifth annual deliciouslyyorkshire Awards, announced at the ceremony at Rudding Park, Harrogate on 9 November.

The judges of this award, sponsored by Stuart's Foods, decided that, at The Black Swan, 'local produce is woven throughout an innovative menu and appears on the plate as highly accomplished and competent cooking.'

Anne Banks from The Black Swan at Oldstead says, "We are delighted to win this award and it's a real team effort – we couldn't produce our high quality dishes without reliable suppliers providing us with the very best seasonal ingredients."

Hosted by BBC Radio 2's resident foodie Nigel Barden, the awards celebrate fantastic-tasting products, passionate people and market-leading companies from the region. This year, the judging process involved 25 experts judging a record 268 entries, travelling over 550 miles mystery shopping and spending 112 hours judging.
