Wine by the glass

Verre du Vin

All our wines by the glass are kept in perfect condition by using the Verre du Vin wine preservation system which introduces a layer of inert gas into the bottle thereby preventing any loss of quality by oxidation. For Champagne the system equalises the pressure in the bottle and maintains the sparkle.

IRVINE

Jim and Marjorie Irvine with daughter Joanne own and operate their vineyard at Springhill high above the Eden Valley in South Australia. The Irvine name has become world famous for producing super-premium wines from the Merlot grape. Their flagship wine “Irvine Grand Merlot” has won numerous prizes at international level beating off competition from other top makers such as Petrus.

They have also produced some very special truly unique wines using several other grape varieties not usually grown in the area such as Zinfandel, Albarino & Pinot Gris.

White Wine

21. Irvine Albarino £23.95

This complex wine has a notes of tropical fruits, ginger and light crisp acidity.

14. Irvine Pinot Gris £29.95

A rich lively wine with perfumed aromas of ripe pear and rose petals.
The Irvine alternative to Eden Valley Riesling.

Red Wine

71. Irvine Springhill Merlot £25.95

Merlot grapes from both The Eden and Barossa Valleys are used to create a rich, plummy wine with chocolate character and a soft finish at a very reasonable price.

215. The Saviors Shiraz 2004, Eden Valley Wines £34.95

Twelve winemaking “Saviours” of The Eden Valley (including Jim & Joanne Irvine) got together to make this wonderful wine. It is dense in colour with ripe black berry fruits, lots of spice and mature tannins.

210. Irvine Zinfandel Reserve 2005 £35.50

Joanne came to understand the making and growing of premium mountain Zinfandel when she worked in California and now back in Australia makes her own wine. Dark cherries and oak on the nose. The palate bursts with ripe raspberries, loganberries and rhubarb with spicy vanilla oak and a hint of white pepper.

212. The Baroness 2008 £39.95

The Baroness “Pomerol blend” is made from 50% Grand Merlot, 25% Cabernet Franc & 25% Cabernet Sauvignon. A wine of real elegance and complexity with rich bramble and dark fruit notes with well integrated vanilla.

90. Irvine Grand Merlot 2005 £76.00

This carefully crafted merlot has full, complete racy flavours, intriguing plummy depths, balanced tannins and premium oak interaction.
